In enclosing a copy of my application to the Bangalore Municipal Corporation, I beg you will kindly lay the same before the Honble Bahadur for his kind perusal and information. I hope you will also remind him of my application dated 11th October 1890 - Camp. Jamma, requesting for a grant from the Ecclesiastical or Provincial funds to the Oriental and Musical Library, Bangalore.

To

THE PRESIDENT,

CITY MUNICIPAL COMMISSION,

BANGALORE.

SIR,

In thanking you and the members of the Municipal Corporation for kindly sanctioning a grant of Rs. 25 per mensem to the "Oriental and Mixed" Library, Srinivasa Mandiram and Charities, Bangalore, up to the end of March this year, I have the honor to state that you have not made me entirely free from anxiety, as you have left the question of this grant in a hanging position. In October last I applied to you and the Corporation for a permanent grant; but the resolution passed then gave me only a partial satisfaction, and has not enabled me to be out of the tantalising circumstances which threaten the permanency of the Library without a perpetual Municipal grant. I see no fresh grounds or arguments to urge on your consideration, as I have already exhausted them as shown in the enclosed copy of the application, which I hope you have on your file. Therein you will be pleased to note that I have explained fully the usefulness of the Library, and that there is nothing again to add to those facts.

As March is fast approaching, I also make a hasty march to request you and the Corporation to sanction immediately a permanent grant of Rs. 25 per mensem. I am also in correspondence with the Government to give me an equal amount from the Imperial or Educational Funds; and I have reasons to believe that the Government will comply with my humble wishes, provided you and the Corporation can kindly aid me in the matter.

Requesting you and the Corporation once more to take a favorable view of this application.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

A. Subbarayalu Chetty
